St. Ben's School Christian Values: Community, Resilience and Kindness

OSMINGTON BAY

Last week, Year 5 smashed their Osmington residential and we celebrate their adventures with a full page photo special (see Page 3).

LONDON PRIDE AS YEAR 6 SHINE IN THE SUN

Year 6 enjoyed an incredible two days in London this week, as the sun shone on their adventures. As well as taking a flight on the London Eye, they took to the river on a boat cruise and enjoyed an awesome performance of Matilda as well as visiting the Houses of Parliament. Next week's newsletter will feature a photo special...

WORLD BOOK DAY CELEBRATIONS AT ST. BEN'S

On Friday this week, St. Ben's children and staff came in as their favourite character from a book. There were some fabulous interpretations of our favourite characters – thank you to all pupils and the parents and carers that helped them.

Pictured below are the winners from each class of our best costume competition. Please see Page 4 for lots more photos of a brilliant day. Huge thanks to our English Lead, Miss Murphy for organising the day and planning so many wonderful activities.
