Blooming marvellous

Huge congratulations to our Glastonbury in Bloom winners from the hotly-contested 2022 final! The judges were bowled over by the quality of submissions, even having to make a new prize to accommodate all the entries they felt deserved one.

Well done to Isabelle Macey, Isabelle Ely, Grace Rohun, Kyla Yates and overall winner – Lilith Foucher! We had the honour of the prizes being presented by Glastonbury's Mayor Jon Cousins and Sarah Marks from the council. Thank you to everyone who submitted a design.

Queen of Puddings!

Inspired by our recent Jubilee celebrations, Ms Switzer organised our very own St Ben's pudding recipe competition – fit for a royal palette!

Many thanks to all our participants, and congratulations to our delicious winners and runners up – pictured above with their wonderful baking prizes.

Please see the last page for a copy of our winning recipes!

Biking Around!

Our lucky Year 5s had an early opportunity to do their 'bikeability' course this week. In sunshine and drizzle the children who volunteered were out zooming (carefully) up and down the roads of Glastonbury. The children have reported back that they feel much safer and more confident on the roads. We were so impressed with their hard work and excellent listening – well done Year 5! Certificates and badges will follow in the next few weeks and all children have received a copy of the Highway Code.

What are you up to?

Our regular feature on what our pupils are doing at home.

This week our focus is on our very own royalty and a talented ballerina.

First up, it's Harrison from Year 6 who took part in the Jubilee procession, proudly wearing the jubilee crown that all pupils made at school. We think he looks every inch the King of St.

Ben's!

Next up, it's Rosalee, a very talented ballerina who performed at the Wells Cathedral Jubilee Show on Sunday as part of the Platinum Jubilee festivities.

BenFest: 1st July

Are you a singer or performer? Do you know one? We are looking for acts for our annual fund-raiser, BenFest on Friday 1st July. Please contact Mr Ranger or Mrs Lawford on 01458 831811.
